WE'RE LISTENING! PARENT SURVEY RESULTS 2010

During the week of May 3-7, 2010, parents throughout UUSD were asked to complete a survey to help gauge our successes and identify areas of concern as we prepare for a new year. More than 4,500 of you responded, providing the district with a rich array of data to use in improving programs and services that will enable us to reach the district's ambitious vision: All students will acquire and apply knowledge at high levels. We appreciate your participation and are pleased to share the district-wide results.

STRATEGIC PRIORITY 1: Ensure high achievement for all students through effective teaching, ongoing assessments, and timely interventions.

What happens now? Each school will receive a report detailing the results for that community. This information will help school leaders to make better, more informed decisions that will address the hopes, dreams and opportunities at each unique campus. Most important, the results will be collected each year to identify trends and measure progress. Together, we will continue to shape our programs and services to transform students' lives in profound ways.
